10. FIREPLACE IN HOME OF MORDECAI LINCOLN. Sr. About this spacious fireplace, much of the home life centered. Within was the usual brick oven. Mordecai was prosperous and his family connections ~~may~~ many and distinguished in the world of his day.

//. BOUND BROOK. Beautiful bound brook flowed near Mordecai's home and this is the view from his back door. The name suggests a controversy between Cohassrt, a part of Hingham, and Scituate, as to the boundaries of their settlements. TIF.p.19

12. ONE OF THE MILL PONDS OF MORDECAI LINCOLN,Sr. Mordecai was locally famous for his three mills. At the uppermost, he used the water on Monday and Tuesday; the middle dam held the water for Wednesday and Thursday; on Friday and Saturday the lowest mill was operated. He was one of the first inthe country to amke iron, and established a furnace and forge at the upper dam, where iron utensils were wrought. TIF.p.23
